COLONEL (BUFFALO) JONES WANTS GAME PRESERVES.

Called on President to Advocate Government Protection

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Washington, Feb. 8.-Colonel C. J. Jones "Buffalo Jones" of Topcka, had a talk with the President this morning. Colonel Jones be urging the President to secure legislation providing for the preservation and protection of herbivorous animais of North particularly those liable to be-irict, such as the buffale and muskby means of great parks or preserves, but at the same time he wants some law passed that will give protection to the few buffalors that have been domesticated.

Colonel Jones was a great huffalo have

Colonel Jones was a great buffalo hunter in the days when the animals numbered millions. He said that they were going to be wiped out, and he captured and pre be wiped out, and he captured and pregrand a herd of about 100. From this herd are bred nearly all the buffaloes in parks and domestic confinement throughout the world. There are less than 600 buffaloes left in the world. The few that were in Yellowstone Park are becoming extinct.
In addition to his herd of buffalo, Colonel fones and his partners have a farm in Texas on which is raised a breed of cattle called catalocs. They are a cross beween the domestic cattle and the buffalo.
Their skin is covered with the long hair
if the buffalo. A robe made from one of hese skins was shown the freshient by his risitor.

EAST SIDE NEWS.

GOITRE MILES RYAN WANTED TO FIGHT A DUEL.

Fined $25 and Costs on Charge Made by Thomas Faulkenberry -Jealousy Caused Trouble.

Miles Ryan was fined $25 and costs in the Circuit Court at Relieville yesterday on a charge of sending a challenge to fight a duel to Thomas Faulkenberry. Both live Schaeffer, in East Carondelet, several miles from East St. Louis, and, it was charged, were enamored of the same young lady. This is said to be the cause of the trouble between them,

The challenge to the duel read as follows:
"You, Thomas Faulkenberry, must fight me with a revelver to-morrow." It was delivered by Thomas White, a mutual friend of the men, but Faulkenberry came to the conclusion that the days of dueling with pistols were over, and he laid the letter before a Justice of the Peace, with the result that Ryan was arrested and heid to the grand jury in the sum of Sict,
and was later indicted, on which charge
he was found guilty yesterday. His fine and costs will amount to more than one hundred dollars.

The circumstances leading up to the challenge to the duel read somewhat like the old-time stories of the dones of the lovers of the Middle Ages. The young men were both visitors at the home of a young lady of East Carondelet, and it appears that Faulkenberry was the favored of the two. It was with him that she accepted the invitations to go driving and to the country entertainments. Ryan was jealous. Meeting Paulkenberry on November is of last year, Ryan assaulted him. The next day Thomas White delivered the message challenging Faulkenberry to fight a duel with Ryan.

Vnusual Bargains China and Cut Glass

Last week was a very busy time in China Store; interest in the Clearing Sale increased daily, showing that those who came first were so well pleased with the bargains they secured that the, news quickly spread among their friends.

Opportunities to replenish china closets and ornament the home at such small cost, are indeed rare; that this fact was appreciated by the ladies of St. Louis was clearly shown by the crowded condition of our store during the past week.

There are still many articles in odd stock and remnants of regular lines which must be sold regardless of profit, and in many cases at less than half the actual cost of the goods. We have filled up the gaps on the tables, made by last week's sales, with dainty and useful articles in glass and china ware, equally as attractive as any heretofore offered.

To-morrow morning will find us ready to receive you, and a glance at the following items will give some impression of the values we are offering.

tablishment of peace in South Africa, made by the Dutch Premier, Doctor Kuyper, were an unwarrantable interference in the af-fairs of the Transvaal. Some of the Boer delegates, it is said, are at variance with per cent annual interest, in demnominations of $20 each, payable $5 monthly on each bond begin-ning March I. Over half this amount is already pledged.

No payment will be called unless a sufficient amount is subscribed.

From Note to England.

A dispatch from Brussels says:
"It is understood here that the Boer delegates have decided to submit to the conditions laid down in Lord Lansdowne's communication to the Dutch Government, and are preparing a communication to the British Government asking permission to visit South Africa and setting forth the object of the proposed visit. It is expected that the request will reach England next week."

BOER DELEGATES MAY LEAVE HOLLAND

London, Feb. 8 .- A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Utrecht indicates the probability of the removal of the Boer headquarters to Geneva, on account of friction between Mr. Kruger and his associates, and the Dutch Government. Doctor Leyds, representative in Europe of the Transvaal, is reported as declaring that the recent proposals looking to the ca-
